LOCAL BOISE AGENT NANCY LEMAS
RECOGNIZED AS THE TOP COMMERCIAL
AGENT IN THE NATION FOR KW COMMERCIAL

Nancy has always been a heavy hitter, but her recent move to Keller Williams has made a difference for her.

“When I saw that the philosophy for Keller Williams was God, family, then business, that did it for me,” says Lemas, who launched Commercial Northwest Real Estate Co., a full-service investment, leasing and property management company in Boise, in 1998. “Once I realized the entire company culture was in line with that belief, it made sense for me to join forces with KW Commercial because these are my core values.” Nancy also added “I love to collaborate with other seasoned professionals and there aren’t that many in our community. The ability to leverage the network of KW Commercial agents nationwide and glean from their expertise is important. Especially during these tough economic times, the more collaboration we have the better off our clients will be.”
